The XIIIth Romanian Congress of Phlebology with International Participation

2 – 4 October 2014
Timisoara – Romania

www.srflebologie.ro

Dear Colleagues,

For Romanian Society of Phlebology, October has become the period when The National Congress takes place, tradition of Phlebology Community in Romania. At the XIIIth Edition, the event aims to address modern therapeutic methods used in phlebology, theoretically and practically. In addition to this, besides conferences, demonstrations will be conducted by prestigious guests operators, with a wide international recognition. The name of the this congress is:

Phlebology in the 21st Century

The significance of this scientific event is special for the organizers of the Congress: the Surgery Clinic I, Romanian Society of Phlebology under the auspices of the University of Medicine and Pharmacy "Victor Babes" Timisoara, because it coincides with the 40th anniversary of the establishment of the Surgical Clinic I in Timisoara.

We will organize a Workshop pre-Congress on the 1st October 2014 during which will be debated in detail the problems of indication, strategy, technique, modern therapeutic procedures management (limited number of participants). As always we are happy to see each other again to change opinions, to spend special moments together in hospitable atmosphere in the city of Timisoara. Together with the Organizing Committee we welcome you to this Congress and wish you a pleasant stay in Timisoara.

Associate Professor of Surgery Sorin Olariu
